- About 10 July 1951, approximately 40 trucks which had been in the Comlemn lumber factory yard were driven in the direction of Fiatra Neamt. The vehicles included the following types:
 - Gaz four-ton trucks, seven-cylinder engines, with six wheels.
 - Ford one and one half ton passenger cars, four cylinder engines.
 - Seven-ton trucks, Diesel engine.
- 2. Informents state that there was a deily influx of vehicles into Galati from the Soviet Union. The numbers ranged between 30 and 50. These vehicles were stored in the New Basin Port area in the Badalau sector, where they remained for a few days and then were taken toward the interior of the country.
